OBJECTIVES
FIELD 015: JAPANESE

WRITTEN EXPRESSION

Write a well-organized passage of several paragraphs (approximately 300–500 words) that is appropriate in style and diction for a given audience, purpose, and occasion and that communicates a message effectively through use of a range of vocabulary, idiomatic expressions, and simple and complex linguistic constructions.

Passages may include, for example, a letter to a professor requesting a recommendation for a particular job or program of study, including the writer's reasons for being interested in the job or academic program; an account describing to a teacher or other acquaintance the reasoning behind a significant personal decision; or a letter of thanks written to an appropriate audience in the target culture (e.g., a family with whom the writer has spent a summer as an exchange student).

ORAL EXPRESSION

In response to a prompt, construct connected oral discourse in the target language that communicates a message effectively and that demonstrates command of a range of vocabulary, idiomatic expressions, and simple and complex language structures.

Responses may include, for example, describing events or actions in tenses appropriate to the task; discussing advantages and disadvantages of an idea or proposed course of action; or responding to a hypothetical situation (e.g., a traffic accident) by explaining or describing events or by requesting assistance.
